

To: Squamish Nation Membership

From: Human Resources Department
Squamish Nation

Human Resources

SQUAMISH NATION

Chen Chen Stway Human Resources

Better for you, Squamish Nation, and the environment

In an effort to reduce paper waste and save money on postage Squamish Nation will no longer be mailing out job postings for positions available within Squamish Nation. Effective July 1, 2010 there will be no more mail outs and all current job postings will be available for viewing and printing on the Squamish Nation website at www.squamish.net by clicking on the Community tab.

Skwxwú7mesh Úxwumixw
SQUAMISH NATION NETWORK

Our Mission Statement:
The Skwxwú7mesh Úxwumixw will protect the Amalgamation and enhance the Úxwumixw cultural values and traditions through respect, equality and harmony for all.

About Us | Services | Community | Arts & Culture | Media Centre & Archives

This new system is designed to benefit everyone:

- Reduces mailbox clutter, and the amount of time you spend sifting through unwanted mail.
- Let's you choose how you view job postings within Squamish Nation.
- Lowers costs of producing and distributing job postings.
- Collectively we can make a positive impact on our environment. Each piece of paper creates more waste. Together we can actively contribute towards a cleaner, safer and ecologically more balanced environment by eliminating the current weekly production and discarding of unwanted job postings.

What can I do if I don't have a computer or access to the internet???

Stitsma Employment Centre has computers and internet available for people who want to search for employment opportunities. Also many local libraries, local coffee shops and internet cafes have computers and internet available for people to use. You can also stop by the Human Resources Department at 336 West 4th Street, North Vancouver and view our job posting board and we would be happy to make a copy of any job postings you are interested in.