Who is Eligible for the Squamish Nation: Ayas Men Men Child and Family Services Aboriginal Supported Child Development Program (ASCDP)?

Aboriginal children who are residents of BC are eligible for ASCDP. Children must meet ALL of the following three criteria:

1. Child must be between newborn to 12 years (services for children 13-19 may be provided on an individual basis.)
2. Child must have a developmental delay or disability in one of four areas:
  - Physical:
  - Cognitive: Intellectual Impairment
  - Communicative: speech and language challenges
  - Social/Emotional/Behavioural: child who has social, emotional or behavioural challenges.
3. Child requires additional support in a childcare setting because of a developmental delay or disability.

What does the Aboriginal Supported Child Development Officer Provide?

The Aboriginal Supported Child Development Officer provides support to Aboriginal children who have been identified as requiring support in programs on and off reserve. (eg. Capilano Little Ones School, St. Edmunds Pre-school).

How do I Apply?

The Aboriginal Supported Child Development Officer will conduct an assessment and assist families through the process.

Please contact the Aboriginal Supported Child Development Officer for more information.
