The Challenge:

Many people who work on the North Shore are not able to afford to live here. This includes people of all ages who work in education, health care, the service industry, emergency response, and other areas that are critical to a thriving community.

The City of North Vancouver, the District of West Vancouver, and Squamish Nation are exploring this question:

How might we...

Co-create housing solutions that address the ability of middle-income earners to find suitable, affordable housing in the City of North Vancouver, Squamish Nation and the District of West Vancouver?

Get Involved:

Apply to participate in the Balanced Housing Lab to develop and test solutions. We are looking for people who:

- Are interested in collaborating,
- Are open to new ideas and approaches, and
- Are willing to commit to attending all four of the workshops.

Workshops will be held from 5:30pm – 8:00pm on:

- December 11th, 2019
- January 29th, 2020
- February 26th, 2020
- March 18th, 2020

Dinner and childcare will be provided, as well as help with transportation, as required.

Participants:

We will be selecting 24-30 participants who represent each of the following groups:

- People who are affected by the issue
- People who have knowledge that could inform the development of the solutions
- People who can influence change

If you would like to participate in the Balanced Housing Lab, please go to www.cnv.org/city-services/planning-and-policies/housing/housing-lab or contact valentina.briceno-strocchia@urbanmatters.ca before December 2, 2019
