

ATTENTION

Knowledge Keepers and Specialists of Skwxwú7mesh Language & Culture

The Squamish Nation receives requests for various types of events, openings, ceremonies and workshop facilitators. If you would like to be added to our resource list and are interested in being on-call for an opportunity, please complete and submit the information below to our Ta na wa Ns7éyxnitm ta Snewíyelh (Language and Cultural Affairs) Department.

Below is a list of common types of ongoing requests that our department receives:

- Traditional Welcomes
- Speakers for various ceremonies/events
- Opening Prayers
- Performers – Dancers (individual/group)
- Singers (individual/group)
- Weavers – cedar & wool
- Drum Makers
- Storytellers
- Historians
- Gatherers and Preparers of Food & Medicines
- Plant and medicine knowledge
- Artists (Logo designs, welcome figures, etc.)
- Workshop facilitators – schools, departments, other

Please provide the following information for submissions

Name:

Number:

Email:

Availability:

Category:

Send Submissions to

Melina Joseph, Cultural Coordinator

Email: melina_joseph@squamish.net or language_culture@squamish.net

Or in person:

320 Seymour Blvd, North Vancouver, BC V7J 2J3

Ta na wa Ns7éyxnitm ta Snewíyelh (Language and Cultural Affairs) Department