May 5-11 has been designated as this year’s North American Occupational Safety & Health (NAOSH) Week. Now in its twenty-second year, governments, employers, and workers across the continent of North America will take time out from their normal activities to promote the importance of preventing injury and illness in the workplace and at home. The goal of NAOSH Week activities and events is to focus the attention of all stakeholders on this important topic and encourage them to equip themselves with tools, information and knowledge, educate each other with positive attitudes and behaviors that will convey commitment and confidence at work, at home and in the community.

The responsibility of NAOSH Week is managed through an effective partnership with the Canadian Society of Safety Engineering (CSSE), the Canadian Centre for Occupational Health & (HRSDC) and the American Society of Safety Engineers (ASSE). The NAOSH Week logo – three hands forming an equilateral triangle – symbolizes joint venture, cooperation and commitment to the common goals shared by all occupational health & safety partners in North America.

We are pleased to proclaim May 5-11, 2019 to be North American Occupational Safety & Health Week in the Squamish Nation. For further information, please contact Doreen Maruska, SN Senior Health & Safety Officer, at 604 985-8335 or doreen_maruska@squamish.net.
