INFORMATION TO BE SUBMITTED WITH THIS APPLICATION

1. Submit the permit application fee of $300 in the form of a cheque made out to Squamish Nation.
2. Provide a copy of all other permit applications submitted for this investigation and all permits issued for this investigation.
3. If not included in 1. above, provide a separate piece of paper for the following information:
 - 2.1 Investigation objectives;
 - 2.3 Investigation methods;
 - 2.3 Schedule of field work analysis and reporting;
 - 2.4 Investigation personnel;
 - 2.5 Other Squamish Nation Archaeological Permits applied for or held by applicant;
 - 2.6 The name of the agency, company or other entity for which the investigation is being undertaken; and
 - 2.7 Proposed repository for archaeological materials, original records, and other original documents generated by this investigation.
- 3 Provide a current Curriculum Vitae for all senior investigation personnel if not already provided.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

- 1) This Archaeological Investigation Permit is valid only for the permit period indicated. The permit period may be extended by Squamish Nation upon receipt from the permit-holder of a written application for an extended permit period.
- 2) The permit-holder must advise Squamish Nation of any changes in the investigation as described in the Permit Application prior to implementing the changes. Such changes must be approved in writing by the Squamish Nation prior to the permit-holder implementing the changes. Failure to advise Squamish Nation of such changes may terminate the Permit.
- 3) A person designated by Squamish Nation may at any time inspect any investigation being conducted under Permit, including records or materials recovered under the authority of the Permit.
- 4) Upon completion of any investigation involving excavations, the permit-holder shall ensure all sites are restored as nearly as possible to their former condition, to the satisfaction of Squamish Nation.
- 5) The permit-holder must provide Squamish Nation with a copy of all reports, thesis, dissertations, papers and any other statements of findings of the investigation within 60 days of completion. If no reports or findings are generated, the permit-holder must inform Squamish Nation in writing of the objectives, methods and results of the investigation.
- 6) The permit-holder must provide Squamish Nation with a copy of all field notes, forms, photographs and other original documents resulting from the investigation.
- 7) The permit-holder must be present "on site" for at least 80% of all field work undertaken under this Permit.
- 8) If human remains are found, the permit-holder must contact Squamish Nation immediately and must not disturb the remains until authorized by Squamish Nation.
- 9) The permit-holder must contact Squamish Nation regarding the "ethnic significance" of any archaeological remains found.

NOTE: Additional terms and conditions may be imposed by Squamish Nation in the Permit such as requiring employment of a member of Squamish Nation or deposit of all archaeological materials in trust for Squamish Nation with a particular institution.
