WHAT IS THE TRUST?

On May 11, 2000, the Government of Canada signed a Settlement Agreement with the Nation to settle a series of claims first commenced by the Squamish Nation on June 30, 1977. Nation members ratified the terms of the Agreement. As compensation for this settlement, Canada paid the sum of $92.5 million into a trust account governed by a Trust Agreement. After a distribution of $18.5 million and legal expenses; left, was a starting Trust capital of $66 million.

WHAT'S ITS PURPOSE?

The Squamish Nation Trust has been established to hold the compensation and any income from the settlement, for the benefit of current members of the Nation and future generations.

WHAT DOES IT MEAN TO ME?

The Squamish Nation Trust Grant Opportunity: The Squamish Nation Trust offers Membership the opportunity to apply for a grant once a year, for Squamish Nation programs and services and small businesses.

WHO ARE THE TRUSTEES?

KATHLEEN SMITH, SUSELIYA- CHAIR

Kathleen has been married to Bruce Smith since 1989. She is the daughter of Yaltanault Carole Newman, granddaughter of Harry and Florence Newman.

After working 16 years in the hospitality industry, she went back to school and earned a Bachelor of Business Administration and a Certified General Accountant Designation. Kathleen has worked for the Nation since 1998 and is the Accounting Manager, Revenue & Taxation in the Finance Department.

In her spare time, she does traditional wool weaving and enjoys exploring the back roads of British Columbia. A favorite weekend activity is camping with her husband and their dogs in the Upper Squamish and Elaho valleys.

Kathleen is committed to fulfilling her duties as a Trustee with dignity, honesty, common sense and respect.

This is Kathleen's 4th term as a Squamish Nation Trustee.

BRAD BAKER-TSNOMOT

Brad is married to Gail. Brad has 2 step children and 2 grandsons. He is the son of Harry and Judy Baker. He has two brothers, Brian and Darren plus two sisters Kathy and Cherie. He also has many nieces and nephews. Brad works for the North Vancouver School District as a District Principal.

Brad is on his 4th term as a Trustee. He is very dedicated and committed to fulfilling his duties as a Trustee and looks forward to "giving" back to the community through the Trust. Brad has long been active in improving the education for our Squamish Youth and continues to work to make school a better place. Brad has a Bachelor of Education from Simon Fraser University and a Master's in Education from City University.

COMMITTEE REVIEW

All Stage one Letters of Request and Applications will be reviewed by an Evaluation Committee (the “Committee”) comprised of the Trustees and Council. The Committee reviewing the applications may consult with staff and organizations that are experienced in relative fields, as necessary.

You will be notified by March 25, 2019 in writing, as to whether or not your request can be further considered under Stage 2 of the process. Those proceeding to Stage 2 will be asked to submit a full proposal.

STAGE TWO: FULL PROPOSAL

You should not submit a full proposal unless the trustees have notified you, in writing, to do so. A full proposal should be no more than fifteen (15) pages in length and include the following information:

- a) A description of your organization or group
- b) Details of the project including:
- c) The need for the project
- d) Objectives
- e) Timetable
- f) Members who will benefit from the project
- g) A description of what the measureable results will be for the community
- h) A detailed projected budget and projected cash flow that identifies planned expenditures and all sources of revenue (e.g. identify other sources of funding including the amount and the likelihood of receiving these funds)
- i) Financial management of the project
- j) The names and qualifications of those who will carry out the project plus a time line of project activities (PLEASE NOTE: Project must be completed by March 31, 2020)
- k) Projects that require the use of band land will require a formal Council motion and a copy of this motion must be included in the full proposal.

PLEASE NOTE: Only those applicants that have been notified in writing to proceed to Stage 2 will be required to submit a full proposal for further review.

DEADLINE FOR STAGE TWO SUBMISSIONS:

COMMITTEE REVIEW

Some of the criteria that the Committee will assess the proposals are as follows:

- a) The proposal addresses priorities as identified by the members in November 2018
- b) The soundness of the Project Plan
- c) The proposal demonstrates sound fiscal and management capacity
- d) The proposal outlines measurable results (output and outcomes) for the Nation
- e) A maximum number of members will benefit from the proposal
- f) There is a demonstrated partnership or access to other funds to support the proposal. The Trustees are unable to provide 100% funding for projects, except in exceptional cases where there is clear and strong evidence that no other source of funding is available
- g) A copy of the Council motion for use of band land for project, if applicable

PROJECT ADMINISTRATION

If your proposal is approved for funding, you will be notified formally by June 30, 2019.

The Trustees will require the following from the successful applicants:

- a) Compliance with the conditions set out in a signed Contribution Agreement between the Squamish Nation and the Trustees
- b) Compliance with the Squamish Nation financial administration policies
- c) Interim and final reports (financial and descriptive) as outlined in the Contribution Agreement
- d) Prior written approval from the Trustees for any major amendments to the project
- e) Three estimates will be required where equipment is being purchased

FUNDING WILL NOT BE RELEASED UNTIL:

1. The Squamish Nation and the Trustees have signed a Contribution Agreement
2. The conditions have been met as set out in the Contribution Agreement
3. A monthly cash flow and budget has been submitted to the Trustees and approved for payment by the Trustees.
4. All past recipients must be up-to-date with past and final financials and activity reports, prior to any further funding being released
