Executive Director

Caroline Bonesky

Caroline is excited to be joining the Squamish Nation as the Executive Director of Corporate Services. For over 30 years she has worked in leadership roles in community based social service organizations, which have supported a variety of vulnerable and marginalized people including services to support those with diverse abilities, brain injury, mental health and addiction, unemployment, youth in conflict with the law, children in need of protection, families affected by violence and homeless youth.

In her leadership role she believes that values and culture are what make a workplace and community a great place to be and putting the right structures and supports in place help people to be the best they can be.

In her last role she led a significant organization Truth and Reconciliation Journey from which she benefitted greatly by expanding her understanding of her own journey. Caroline is excited to be able to continue that learning with the Squamish Nation.

Caroline is a life long learner and holds a Bachelor of Arts degree, a Bachelor of Social Work degree and an MBA. She is a first generation Canadian who has lived in Ontario, Quebec, Alberta and BC. Caroline is the proud mother of two children and the grandmother of one.

Caroline started the Executive Director, ᑭetᑭítayus Ch'áwch'aw (Corporate Services) role on April 22, 2024. The departments of the division include Chéńchenstway (Human Resources), Estᑭwáyusem (Finance), Nexwsp'áyaken ta Smets'álken Kw'áxwa7 (IT & IS), and Nexwsyétsem (Communications & Engagement).
