Why attend the Annual General Meeting (AGM)?

- Get involved and stay updated on important information.
- Vote on resolutions from previous assemblies in 2024 and 2025.
- Enjoy time with friends and family while discussing our future.

Your vote matters! We need as many Squamish People as possible to attend.

What's happening at the Annual General Meeting (AGM)? Why is it over two days?

Attend on both days to receive important information and cast your vote!

Saturday, November 15:

- Eligible Voters will vote on resolutions.
- Resolutions passed first at a People's Assembly and then at an Annual General Meeting become official recommendations to Council. After the AGM, Council and staff will review these resolutions for any risks, then present the results to the Squamish People.

Sunday, November 16:

- Eligible Voters will vote on resolutions.
- Staff will present the Squamish Nation Audited Financial Statements for 2024/25.
- Learn about the Nation's operations, finances, and see how well we met our goals.

Deadline to register: November 11, 2025

No Eligible Voter will be turned away. If you register after the deadline, staff will assist you in accessing the meeting. Registering early helps staff estimate number of attendees, ensures you have access to documents and meeting links, and makes you eligible for a door prize.
