Archaeology work continuing on Lower Stá7mes IR 24

You may see archaeology work in different parts of Lower St'á7mes over the coming months. This notice provides information about the work and what to expect.

What is happening

Our archaeology team will conduct additional archaeological testing in Lower St'á7mes.

Testing involves carefully digging small areas so archaeologists can examine and document what is found. Test areas will be restored once the archaeology work is complete.

When: September to October 2026

Expected work hours: 8:00 am to 3:00 pm

Where

Testing will take place mainly within or beside road boundaries and in other locations where additional archaeology work is needed.

What you will see

You may see:

- archaeologists, ACE technicians and community members working in different parts of the residential area;
- cones around archaeology work areas at the side or edge of the road;
- a single-lane closure on Stawamus Road;
- an excavator working in some archaeology areas;
- trucks travelling along Chief Billy Drive and Stawamus Road to move excavated material to a temporary stockpile area on the island; and
- traffic personnel helping people move safely through the area.

Please follow posted signs and directions from traffic personnel.

Why we are doing this work

Archaeology work has been underway in Lower St'á7mes since 2023, helping us learn more about St'á7mes and the long and continued connection of Sḵw̓xwú7mesh People to this place.

Some of what we have learned so far was shared at the Lower St'á7mes Celebration and Open House at Totem Hall on June 24.

This archaeology is part of the ongoing work in Lower St’á7mes to learn from and protect the cultural history held in the land as planning continues for future flood protection and infrastructure improvements.

Who will be doing the work

The work will be carried out by Skwxwú7mesh Úxwumixw Ta na wa Yúus ta Stitúyntsam (Rights and Title Department), with community members and ACE technicians participating in and guiding the work.

The archaeology program will be supervised by Yumks/Dr. Rudy Reimer, Skwxwú7mesh Úxwumixw archaeologist who has studied St’á7mes for many years.

Opportunities to participate

There will be opportunities for Skwxwú7mesh People to see archaeology in action, learn about what is being uncovered, participate in discovery, volunteer, and access training and employment opportunities connected to the work.

More information about these opportunities will be shared as the archaeology continues.

Ta na wa Yúus ta Stitúyntsam Rights and Title

Community Update

August 28, 2026

UPDATE

Keeping Community Informed

Skwxwú7mesh Úxwumixw has a similar regulatory role as the provincial or federal governments in oversight of the Woodfibre LNG Project and FortisBC Eagle Mountain Gas Pipeline Project. The role, and 33 conditions, are part of the legally binding Squamish Nation Environmental Assessment Agreements (SNEAAs). Our Rights and Title Department oversee the conditions of the agreements and are committed to keep Membership informed and updated on these projects.

Updates

Introduction to Flaring

Flaring is expected to begin at Woodfibre LNG in 2027

Flaring is the burning of excess natural gas to maintain appropriate pressure in WoodfibreLNG’s facility systems. It occurs during start-up, maintenance and shutdown, or an unplanned event such as a power outage. It’s part of safe operation of the LNG Facility — and although the flame could look concerning — flaring results in fewer greenhouse gas emissions than if gas was released without burning. Flaring is to occur more frequently in roughly three years of commissioning and early operations of the LNG facility.

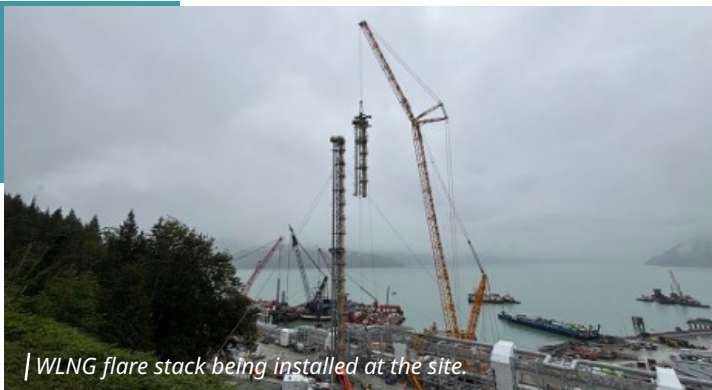

Q&A

What is in a gas flare?

Natural gas is in the flare – the same as what’s used to heat homes or cook on stoves. Carbon dioxide and water are the primary byproducts of the flaring process. Other byproducts can include carbon monoxide, particulate matter, soot, nitrogen oxide and volatile organic compounds.

How is flaring regulated?

Flaring relates to several regulatory tools. Three key ones are the Facility Permit, the Waste Discharge

Permit, and the Air Quality Mitigation and Monitoring Plan.

The BC Energy Regulator (BCER) authorizes facility operations, including flaring, through the WoodfibreLNG Facility Permit. An LNG Facility Permit holder must ensure the duration of flaring and the quantity of gas that is flared is minimized.

To operate, WoodfibreLNG will also require a Waste Discharge Permit (WDP) for air emissions, including emissions from flaring. The WDP will set enforceable limits on the type and quantity of substances the facility can release. Emissions are monitored and reported against limits set in the permit. Skwxwú7mesh Úxwumixw will engage with BCER on the WDP Application. There will also be a public comment period in the fall.

The Air Quality Mitigation and Monitoring Plan fulfils Environmental Assessment approval conditions from Skwxwú7mesh Úxwumixw, Impact Assessment Agency of Canada, and BC Environmental Assessment Office. The SNEAA requires that the Plan be approved by Skwxwú7mesh Úxwumixw prior to commissioning. This approval step ensures inclusion of important monitoring or reporting aspects about flaring's impacts to air quality.

How long will flaring last, and how large will it be?

When WoodfibreLNG starts commissioning, expected in 2027, the flare stack will have a constant one metre (three foot) pilot flame. The flare stack is similar to a pilot light on a gas stove.

When there is a need for a full gas flare, which can last for 15 minutes to a few days depending on the reason for the flare, the flame is expected to be 60 metres (200 feet), or up to 90 metres (300 feet) in the event of an emergency.

UPCOMING EVENTS

You are invited — Open House

We are holding an Open House on the Squamish Nation Environmental Assessment Agreements (SNEAA).

Skwxwú7mesh Úxwumixw Community Members are invited to learn about these projects, how the work is conducted and overseen, and ask questions. Information will cover all aspects of the work, from Emergency Response and Indigenous Monitoring to Flaring and Habitat Restoration.

CALLING YOUTH VOLUNTEERS!

Support the 2026 B.C. CCP Workshop

Each year, the Comprehensive Community Planning (CCP) Workshop is hosted by different First Nation on their territory, bringing together First Nations from across the province. Over 2-3 days participants share ideas and learn from one another on topics from community engagement to wellness-centred planning and preparing for emergencies.

This year, Sanala Planning is partnering with Squamish Nation to host the B.C. CCP Workshop on October 22-24, 2026 at Totem Hall, and we're looking for youth volunteers to help make the event a success.

Volunteer roles may include:

- Set-up and takedown
- Registration booth support
- Notetaking
- Assisting participants or speakers
- General workshop support

Have another way you would like to be involved? We are happy to chat.

Call for Traditional Knowledge Keepers & Workshop Facilitators

The Yúustway (Health & Wellness) team is seeking facilitators and Knowledge Keepers to support the delivery of workshops and learning opportunities throughout 2026-2027.

We welcome applications from individuals with experience, skills, cultural knowledge, and teachings that can contribute to the health and wellness of our community. Squamish People will be prioritized for paid opportunities.

Please note that submitting your name does not guarantee selection as a facilitator. However, all applicants will be added to our facilitator contact list and may be considered for future opportunities.

We encourage interested individuals to apply and share their knowledge, gifts, and expertise with our community.

A Call to Community Members

Join the Squamish Nation Membership Committee

We are inviting Community members to bring their heart, knowledge, and dedication to the Skwxwú7mesh Úxwumixw Membership Committee. This committee plays a vital role in carrying out necessary, respectful work related to Membership and our Membership Code, ensuring our Community remains strong, connected, and grounded in our values.

We are seeking those who bring knowledge, experience, or a strong interest in:

- Culture & Traditions: Squamish Nation history, laws, customs, language, and active participation in cultural and community life.
- Connection to Land & Ancestry: A deep understanding of family ties to the traditional lands of the Nation.
- Community Engagement: Active involvement and care for our people, whether you reside in community or away from home.

Honouring Our Elders

Our Elders hold invaluable wisdom and perspective. Elders are strongly encouraged to apply, and priority for Elder appointments will be given in the following order:

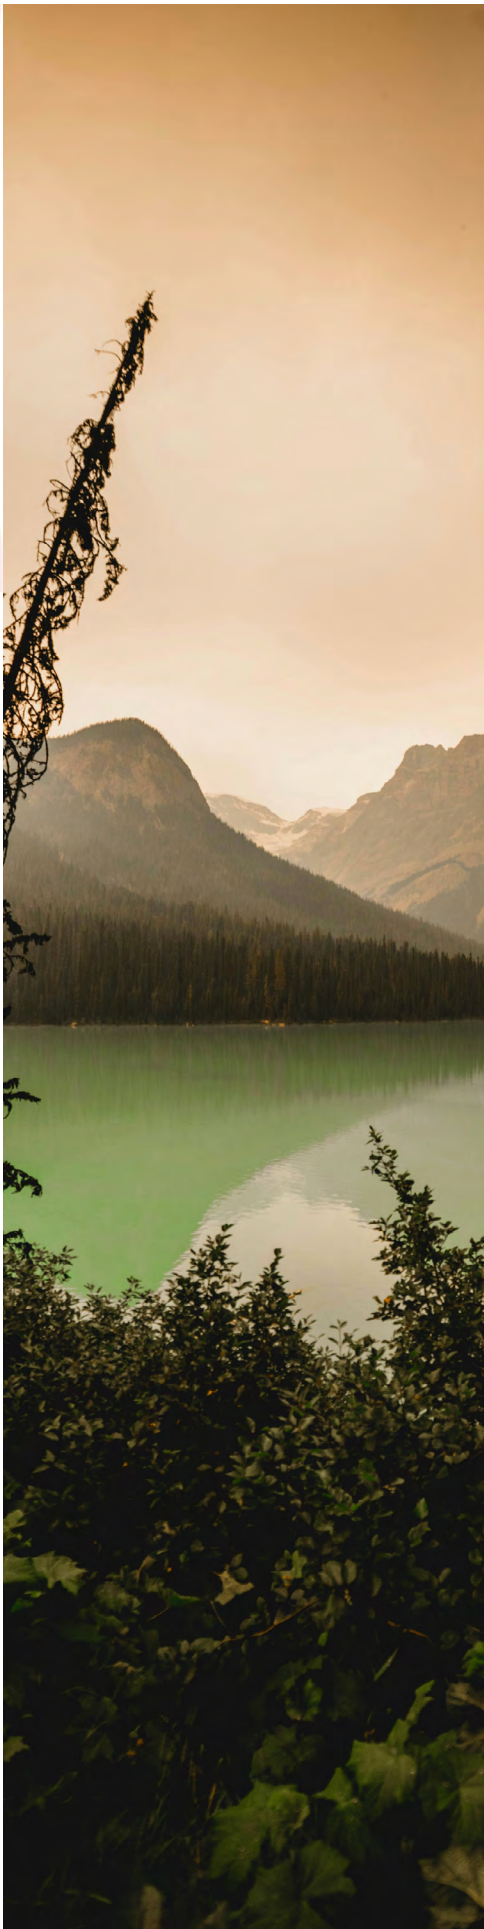

- 65 years of age and older
- 60 to 64 years of age
- 55 to 59 years of age

Serving on the Membership Committee is a meaningful opportunity to contribute your lived experience and Community perspective to a remarkable Nation responsibility.

How to Apply

Please submit your Expression of Interest by email to: EOI@squamish.net

Señákw Artist Call

Exciting Opportunity for
Sḵw̱xwú7mesh Artists at Señákw

Nch'kay invites Sḵw̱xwú7mesh Úxwumixw artists to submit an Expression of Interest (EOI) for a large-scale 2D feature wall artwork in the Tower 3 Amenity Exit Staircase at Señákw.

This opportunity centres on a dramatic three-storey concrete wall spanning Levels 38, 39, and 40. Framed by a skylight above and glazing into adjacent lobby spaces, the artwork will help shape a place of movement, gathering, transition, and reflection within one of Señákw's highest shared resident spaces.

The selected work should reflect distinctly Sḵw̱xwú7mesh design language and cultural presence while responding thoughtfully to the stairwell's scale, light, and architectural character. Collaborative submissions and mentorship with emerging artists are encouraged.

Artist Fee
$7,500 for the Artist's scope (artwork design and development, production ready graphic file preparation, artist meeting attendance, and related expenses).

How to Apply
Submit EOI via email to: culturaladvisory@nchkay.com
with subject line: EOI Señákw Exit Stair Feature Wall

A concept or design is not required at this stage.

Squamish Valley Community Health & Immunizations

Each month, the Squamish Valley Public Health Nurses have an opportunity for Squamish Nation members to drop-in and ask questions about their health, get screened for tuberculosis, and get information about vaccines, or get immunized.

This event is first-come first-serve, and while registration is recommended, we do welcome drop-ins.

Honour Your Strength

OUR DIABETES WELLNESS JOURNEY

Yúustway is excited to resume their Honour Your Strength: Our Diabetes Wellness Journey community-based education series this fall.

Made up of eight in-person interactive education sessions, participants will learn how to live well with diabetes through holistic wellness, peer support and strength-based learning. The series invites people to have conversations around diabetes, sharing their stories and wisdom.

WHEN: September 22, October 20, November 17, December 8
5 – 7 pm

WHERE: Yúustway Health & Wellness
380 Welch St., Unit 9A

The dates for sessions 5 – 8 will be announced later. Participants are required to attend all 8 sessions, which will be held in person and virtually. A light meal will also be served.
